St. Anthony's

Another summer chapel was erected for those living in the extremities of the parish in the Sand Hills section of Scituate. A night school was also established for Italian immigrants to learn how to read and write English.

The parish continued to grow, so that assistants were assigned to the Scituate chapels. In May 1921, the late Cardinal Richard Cushing was assigned to Cohasset until the summer assistants were appointed. Cardinal Cushing returned in 1949 to offer a Solemn Pontifical Mass on his first parish grounds, to commemorate the first Mass said in Cohasset 100 years earlier.

Pratt recalled the episode of the small statue of St. Anthony, a carved wooden statue made in the Azores for Mrs. Ignatia Concepcion Frates to bring to America. The statue became lost during the journey, and after many prayers the statue was discovered and returned to serve as the first statue in the first St. Anthony's Church.

A patron saint of lost articles can't remain lost for very long.

Carillon Concerts Continue At St. Stephens

The music of the 51 cast bronze bells of the Jessie M. Barron Memorial Carillon in the tower of Saint Stephen's Church, Cohasset, continues Sunday afternoons from 4 to 5 o'clock until Sept. 30.

The guest artist for the recital on August 19 will be Milford Myhre, carillonneur and Associate Director of the Mountain Lake Sanctuary in Lake Wales, Florida.

My. Myhre is a past president of the Guild of Carillon-neurs in North America, and is associated with the Netherlands Carillon Society, the Belgian Guild of Carillon-neurs and is an honorary member of the "Guilde des Carillon-neurs de France."

Milford Myhre has distinguished himself internationally through his recital playing, his recordings, and his lectures. His published compositions and many arrangements of folksongs have been a major contribution to the repertory of music for the instrument. His program on this occasion includes many of these works.

The bells are heard to good advantage from the Cohasset Common and adjacent areas, including the courtyard at the base of the carillon tower.
